WHAT TO EXPECT IN BELGRADE

Dear colleagues and friends,

This year, the Serbian capital, the city of Belgrade, the Football Association of Serbia and the AEFCA will have the honor to host almost 200 coaches from 70 countries. In the country of sport and traditional hospitality, we are looking forward for the 38th AEFCA Symposium.

Traditionally, within the program, the host country will present itself, the past, the present and the future of its football. Serbia is a country of exceptional sports tradition, and football takes a special place in the hearts of the fans. Since the first World Cup in Montevideo, when Serbia, then under the name of the Kingdom of Yugoslavia, has won the 3rd place. In the world, up to date, Serbian football is proud of great matches, great players and coaches who have changed this sport. Bora Milutinovic, participant of 5 World Cups with 5 different national teams, Ljupko Petrovic, the winner of the Champions League with FC "Red Star", Radomir Antic, Head Coach of FC "Barcelona", "Real Madrid" CF and "Atletico de Madrid", are some of them, and the Football Association of Serbia will take the opportunity to present a recognition to all of them for all they gave to football. As the World Cup approaches, we'll have the opportunity to observe the training session of Mr. Slavoljub Muslin the Head Coach of the Serbian National Football Team, as well as to hear the Head Coaches of several national teams from the Balkans about current football trends. The biggest Serbian clubs, FC "Red Star" and FC "Partizan", will present their development programs, and the vision of football and football players of the future.

Accordingly, the motto of the event is:

FROM MONTEVIDEO TO MOSCOW – SERBIAN WAY

Apart from Serbian coaches, the lecturers will be experts from several different associations, as well as leading European clubs.

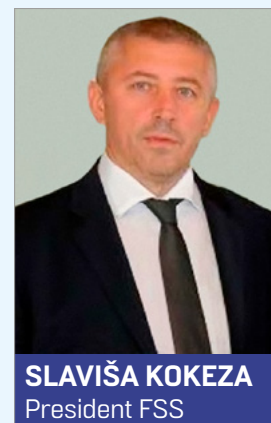

Fernando Santos, the Head Coach of the current Champion of Europe, Portugal, will present philosophy and the path to the success of his team. Bernd Stober (DFB and UEFA JIRA panel) and Jose Tavares (FC "Porto") will talk about development programs. Antonio Gagliardi, Head of Match Analysis at Italian Football Federation will speak about the importance of analysis. We will have the honor to listen to the legendary coach, Gerard Houllier who will talk about the situation in European football.

The participants will have the opportunity to visit the National Football House - the Sports Center of the Football Association of Serbia, and also to jointly see how rich the cultural heritage is and the openness of the Serbian capital and to enjoy the traditional dinner in one of the oldest Belgrade quarters.

As you can see, along with many expert topics, the participants will have the opportunity to feel hospitality, to learn about the culture and history of the country and the city of the hosts. We are convinced that this AEFCA Symposium will be a fantastic experience and we'll welcome you in Belgrade on 23.10.2017.
